A Place to Pray for.....

Each month we will be invited to pray for a particular place. This month it is the Treseifion Estate in Holyhead. This is the home of many young families in town. The biggest connection we have with the Estate is Ysgol Parchedig Thomas Ellis. With the school due to close early in 2017, we will have to explore other ways of working. One idea we are pursuing is to hold a Christmas event on the Estate. Please join with us in prayer for this place, its people and its school.

We remember in our prayers, everyone who has come into our churches this summer from every corner of the world. We pray also for everyone who has joined us in our outdoor prayers and worship. We also thank everyone who has supported in any way our many events over the summer period: fair, charity shop, flower and craft festivals; cream teas, coffee mornings, quizzes and musical evenings. We were delighted to welcome the many cruise liners, passengers and staff, and thank the various local choirs and musicians who entertained them. God bless you all!

Saints Days September 2015

21st: Matthew – apostle and evangelist
Matthew appears in the list of the twelve apostles of Jesus, and according to the Gospel written in his name, he was a tax inspector. Within the community, this was a despised occupation, but Matthew made amends for any previous wrong doing. Jesus forgave him, and he was therefore welcomed into the group.

29th: Michael and all Angels.
Michael, Gabriel and Raphael are the three named biblical angels, depicted as the beloved messengers of God. Michael is described as the leader of the armies of God, and is regarded as the protector of Christians from Satan, particularly at the hour of death. A stained glass window in St Cybi’s church, depicts him defeating the devil.

“I can always pray for someone when I don't have the strength to help him in any other way.”
