Kevin writes: A Place to Pray for.....

Please spend a little time this month praying for the work of St David's, Morawelon, its links with the English Methodist Chapel, work in Ysgol Llanfawr and Messy Church. Pray especially for wisdom for the committee as it develops plans to renovate the building.

We have all been saddened by the death of Bob Llewellyn. At the celebration of Bob's life, the Dean of Bangor, Kathy Jones, spoke eloquently about his many qualities: courage, humour, commitment, fitness and sense of adventure. Bob was also a wonderful support for Christine, and that is how he will be remembered by many in our congregations. Let us pray for Christine, Owain, Tracey and the boys.

Rest eternal, grant to him, O Lord May Light perpetual shine upon him

St. Cybi's Stewarding Team—Spring and Summer 2016

Jane writes: During the summer months, St. Cybi's Church welcomes a large number of people every day, especially if a cruise ship is in port. Some are tourists visiting a fascinating historic building. Some are worshippers coming either for private prayer or to take part in a service. Some are people who come looking for support, comfort or advice in varying degrees of personal need. Stewards have been actively involved in welcoming visitors for many years now and, in so doing, play an important part in the Ministry of Welcome. This summer, to add to this ministry, a small team of Day Chaplains will be on hand, especially at times when the stewards will be particularly busy, to offer pastoral support to visitors. They will be pleased to lend a listening ear, to pray with or for the visitor, and will conduct brief hourly prayers. The Day Chaplains will be found most often in St. David's Chapel. Please pray for this new initiative.

If you feel that you could spare a few hours a week to join the regular stewarding team, please get in touch with Betty Abbit 763868

Saints Days May 2016

01: Philip and James—Apostles: They are both listed as part of the twelve in the first three gospels, but John gives Philip greater prominence. He features in the feeding of the five thousand, and also at the last supper. James, sometimes called the less or the younger, was believed to be the son of Alphaeus. According to Mark, his mother was a witness at the crucifixion.

05: Asaph—Bishop: When St Kentigern founded a monastic settlement on the banks of the River Elwy in North Wales, one of his pupils was a nobly born boy named Asaph. When Kentigern was called to become Bishop of Glasgow, Asaph was appointed Bishop of Llanelwy (now St Asaph.) He remained there for the rest of his life and was buried there.

14: Mathias—Apostle: After Judas Iscariot left the group, Mathias was chosen by lot to replace him from amongst the disciples who had been with Jesus during his earthly ministry, and had witnessed the resurrection. Being chosen by lot indicated that he had been chosen by God rather than by men.

Do not regret growing older—it is a privilege denied to many!
