Kevin's Place to Pray.....

The Refail Farm Estate sits between Trearddur Bay and Rhoscolyn. Many of the children who live on the estate attend Ysgol Gwenfaen Rhoscolyn, with whom St Gwenfaen's have very close links. Please take a moment to think about the people living on the estate, maybe someone you know, and ask that God might bless them today.

we thank all those who have participated in the Open days in St Gwenfaens and St Ffraids.

Thanks also to all those who have stewarded in St Cybi's all summer, as well as to the many visitors who have come from all corners of the world. They are inevitably very impressed with the beauty and peace of the church. Some need to hear the history: others just want to take photographs, or to connect spiritually either in meditation, or by using a prayer stone, or by lighting a candle. There really is something for everyone! Looking ahead to 2016, if you feel that you could spare a couple of hours a week to join the stewarding team, please get in touch.

Saints Days October 2015

18th: Luke the Evangelist

Luke is described as the 'beloved physician'. A dear friend of the apostle Paul, he was his only companion in prison. Luke is believed to be the author of two books in the New Testament – the one that bears his name and also the Acts of the Apostles. In his gospel, his writing style is very pictorial, describing Christ's life from birth, to death through to resurrection. As a gentile, Luke emphasises that salvation is for everyone, regardless of gender, social position or nationality. He died at the age of 84.

28th: Simon and Jude – Apostles

Simon and Jude were named among the twelve apostles in the gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke. Simon, also called the Zealot, was a member of the political resistance movement opposed to the Roman occupational forces. Jude was the son of James, and is remembered as being the patron saint of lost causes.
