

Thursday 5 May at 7pm
St Cybi's, Holyhead

Why should we invite people to hear about Jesus?
John Lomas

John is Archdeacon of St Asaph and Chair of the Fellowship for Parish Evangelism

Friday 6 May at 8pm
Calfari: a concert (acoustic set)
St Cybi's Holyhead

A local welsh language band

Calfari are a new Welsh language band and have just won the Welsh 'Brits'.

Men's Breakfast
Saturday 7 May
Trearddur Stores at 8am

Richard Wood is the Vicar of Bro Madyn and will speak about:

Jesus: an example for Men

How can I forgive? Jill Saward
Saturday 7 May
St Gwenfaen's Hall at 7pm

Jill is a nationally renowned speaker. In 1986 she was the victim of an attack in Ealing Vicarage, and will speak about her journey of forgiveness and faith. She is a campaigner against violence in general and against woman in particular.

Who will you invite?

Names of those you would like to invite?

What steps do you need to take?

Bro Cybi Ministry Area

The Anglican Churches on Holy Island: St Cybi, St David, St Ffraid, St Gwenfaen, Morawelon Messy Church
www.holyheadparishchurches.co.uk

Sunday 8 May: an invitation to hear the Bishop
St Ffraid, Trearddur at 10:30am

Bishop Andy is the lead evangelist in the Diocese. He will be leading worship in the Ministry Area in the morning.

In the afternoon, there will be acts of worship on Newry and Rhoscolyn beaches.

On Saturday morning and into the afternoon, there will be pop up Messy Church activities in Holyhead

Jane Leadbetter of the National Messy Church team will be helping us

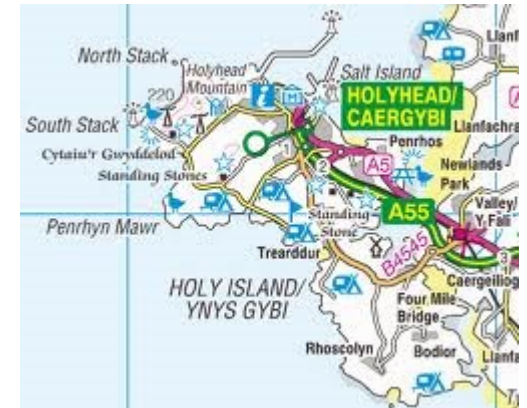

Jennifer Roberts will be doing a couple of puppet shows by the Millennium Cross in Holyhead at 11am and 12 Noon

A weekend full of invitations Penwythnos llawn o gwahoddiadau

St Cybi, St David, St Ffraid, St Gwenfaen

Who are you going to invite?

holyislandvicar@gmail.com